Financial Planning is for the Young

Retirement Services is presenting a four part seminar series on financial situations impacting younger employees.

To register for this seminar click https://hr.apps01.yorku.ca/machform/view.php?id=44453

1. Teaching children about finances
   Money matters have become more complex. By teaching your children about finances when they are young, you will give them the tools they will need to be smart money managers in their later years.

   - How to start financial discussions with your child
   - How to use allowances as a teaching tool
   - Ways to discuss credit cards, investments, and living costs with your teens
   - Ways to save, spend, share
   - Tips by age group
   - Teachable moments

   Wednesday, March 9, 2016, Senate Chamber, Ross N940, 12 pm – 1 pm

2. New homes, new needs
   Buying a home is one of the biggest financial investments you will ever make. Learn how to make the most of and protect your investment with the ‘New homes, new needs’ seminar, hosted by a Sun Life Financial advisor.

   - Considerations of buying vs. renting
   - How to use your RRSPs to purchase a home
   - Pros and cons of mortgage insurance

   Wednesday, March 23, 2016, Senate Chamber, Ross N940, 12 pm – 1 pm

3. Saving for your child’s education
   Post-secondary school can be very expensive. If you don’t plan ahead, your child could end up buried in debt as they begin their career. If you have a plan and start saving when they are young, you can set your child up for a successful future by helping to provide the education they need without the financial burden.

   - Effective ways to manage rising education costs
   - What happens if education plans change
   - How the Canada Education Savings Grant works (RESP’s)
   - How your savings are invested through various investment options

   Wednesday, April 6, 2016, Senate Chamber, Ross N940, 12 pm – 1 pm
4. Manage your Money and save for the Future
Your money is a huge part of your life. Learning how to manage it the right way is an important step toward taking control of your life and reaching the goals and dreams you’ve set for yourself and your family. While the idea of managing money may seem difficult, it doesn't have to be, it's just one more skill to learn. Managing your money can help reduce the stress in your life and help you plan for unexpected events and expenses.

- Get organized with your money
- Recognize the pros and cons of credit cards
- Manage your bank account
- Budgeting why it's important
- Get insight on housing costs

Wednesday, April 20, 2016, Senate Chamber, Ross N920, 12 pm – 1 pm
